13. Once a winning ticket has been drawn, it will not be eligible for any other prizes.
14. Value of prizes is the (approximate) retail value as of the date that any contracts may have been negotiated with suppliers and/or the date that the lottery application is received. Due to economic fluctuations, the market value of the prizes may rise or diminish over time. Neither the winner nor the licensee is entitled to the difference, if any, between the stated and actual market value at the time the prize is awarded. Neither the licensee nor the licensing authority is responsible for any change in value.
15. Contact information for the winner will be shared with the licensing authority. Contact information for all other ticket purchasers may be shared with the licensing authority.

16. Any prizes not claimed will be secured for a period of six months from the date of the draw. Every reasonable effort to contact the winner will be made, including attempting to locate the winner using the contact information provided on the ticket stub and by sending a registered letter. At the end of the six-month period, the value of the prize will be included in the gross proceeds of the raffle.
17. The designated members-in-charge, prize donors and other persons or companies involved in the conduct of the raffle (including insurance companies, legal and accounting firms, call centres, and all Registered Gaming Suppliers) must not purchase tickets or be eligible to win any prize. Prizes must not be purchased from a business controlled by any of the designated members-in-charge of the licensed lottery event.
18. Brock CHC has designated two (2) bona fide, active members of the licensee to be in charge of, and responsible for, the conduct of the raffle. These people are not eligible to purchase tickets or win any prizes.
